Perks and Other Benefits Offered but not Availed

Plots: Neither as Judge of the Supreme Court nor as Chief Justice of the Balochistan High Court did I apply for a plot. However, I was offered but declined the offer.

Prohibited Bore Weapons: The Ministry of Interior, Government of Pakistan vide S.R.O.(I)/2019 dated 21 August 2019 offered, amongst others, to the Judges of the Supreme Court and of the High Courts prohibited bore weapons. I responded by my letter dated 14 September 2019 declining the said offer. My letter also stated, that, 'The Ministry of Interior/ Government appears to be implementing two sets of rules in the country thereby undermining the concept of the rule of law. There is considerable doubt as to whether the Notification meets constitutional criteria. The Notification also appears to erode the laws governing arms. And, what moral authority will the Government exercise in tackling the spread of weapons by encouraging the spread of more lethal, prohibited bore weapons?'

Pension and Postretirement Benefits

Pension amount: Determined on the basis of years of service.

Personnel: One driver and one orderly. A police guard at residence.

Utilities: 300 free local calls, 2000 units of electricity, 25 HM of gas, water and 300 litres of petrol per month.

If the above are availed then have 'to provide free work of arbitration involving Government interest without charging fee'.

Car: Official car in use can be purchased at depreciated value.

Medical: 20% medical allowance.

Wife

My wife, Mrs. Sarina Isa, is not my dependent and files her own income tax returns in the United Kingdom and in Pakistan. I requested her and she agreed to voluntarily disclose the information attached herewith.

Justice Qazi Faez Isa
Judge Supreme Court.

Voluntary Public Disclosure

My husband, Justice Qazi Faez Isa, has informed me that the Women's Action Forum has sought information about my income, income tax paid and assets. I am not my husband's dependent and am not obliged to make such disclosure but do so voluntarily to encourage public servants, constitutional office holders, special assistants to the Prime Minister and their respective spouses to do so too. The information mentioned below accords with my filings under the income tax laws.

Children

I have two children. My daughter is 33 years old, is married, has three children and is living in Pakistan. She tells me that she files income tax returns in the UK and in Pakistan, separate from her husband and voluntarily disclosed her income and tax paid, as under:

Tax Year:	Income:	Tax Paid:
2018	Rs. 4,173,013	Rs. 480,207
2019	Rs. 5,085,109	Rs. 684,022
2020	Rs. 6,186,299	Rs. 972,147

My son is 30 years old and lives and works in London, UK. My son tells me he is tax compliant with UK tax laws.

For complete disclosure I may add that my father, Abdul Haque Khoso, passed away recently but as yet I do not know what I've inherited from him since I've not had the opportunity to leave Islamabad to go to Karachi, Jacobabad and Naseerabad.
